Guiding Explorers of the Future

On Earth Day, our Explorer class spent time learning about how to care for our planet and why it is so important to look after it. We talked about life on Earth, including plants, animals, and people, and how everything is connected. To celebrate, we planted seeds together and learned how to care for them by giving them water, sunlight, and love. This helped us understand how small actions can make a big difference in keeping our world healthy and beautiful.

Book of the Week

"Peter Rabbit: Easter Surprise"
by Beatrix Potter

Peter Rabbit: Easter Surprise is a lovely springtime story about Peter Rabbit and his friends getting ready for Easter. Peter wants to do something special, so he excitedly hops along on a little adventure to find the perfect surprise to share with his friends. Along the way, he learns that giving and sharing can be just as fun as getting presents.

Huge congratulations to the following children who have been chosen as the Lead Learners.

Each week we celebrate the class that have shown respect for their classroom. The children really love our gold, diamante dustpan and brush award! Why don't you ask them about it?

The Importance of Homework

At North Crescent, we believe that providing your children with homework is not only essential in allowing them to independently practice the skills we have been learning in class, but also helps to support them to develop the responsibility and independence that they will need to be successful at each stage of their education. Our home school agreement states that parents will:

- work with the school to ensure my child follows school expectations and policies
- support my child with home learning, including reading

Please have a conversation with your child about homework, and the expectation to complete and return it each week.
